

TRAILS

SUPERSTITION WILDERNESS

There is a network of some 170 miles of “system” trails serving the Superstition Wilderness Area and contiguous areas. Their condition varies from satisfactory to very poor. All trails are closed to motor vehicles and mechanical transport such as bikes.

Use a great deal of caution when traveling on backcountry trails such as this one and be aware of the risks you assume.

A few brief comments are in order about the following trail:

West Pinto Trail 212: 9 miles long. A scenic trail mostly located in the west fork of Pinto Creek. Steep grades on portions near Iron Mountain. The east section is in the canyon bottom that is subject to flooding and may be difficult to follow. Elevation: 3,440 - 5,500 feet. Termini: Miles TH (Forest Road 287A), and Trail 109 near Rogers Through TH.

No more than 15 people are allowed to be in a group. No more than 15 head of livestock are allowed in a group.
